Traditional principles. Contemporary methods. Unparalleled results.

This groundbreaking new writing series combines time-tested classical techniques—the imitation and analysis of great writers—with original composition exercises in history, science, biography, and literature.

Skills Taught:

- One- and two-level outlining
- Writing chronological narratives, biographical sketches, descriptions, and sequences across the curriculum
- Constructing basic literary essays on fiction and poetry
- Researching and documenting source material
- First volume of four that will prepare students for high-level rhetoric and composition

Features of the program:

- Writing assignments are modeled on examples from great literature and classic nonfiction
- All source material for assignments is provided—no other books are needed
- This Instructor Text provides scripted dialogue to use when the student has difficulty, plus detailed guidance on how to evaluate the student's work
- Student Workbook (sold separately) encourages independence by directing all assignments to the student
- First volume of four that will prepare students for high-level rhetoric and composition
