Communism Is Not Dead!: In Fact, America already Has Been Conquered From The Inside! Terry L Cook

Much of public debate today is not about whether we're going to have a free society vs. state control, but simply about which side of the circle we're going to slide down during the move away from freedom towards a global, state-controlled communist society. Despite communism's 100% track record of failure, the entire Western world seems determined to do it again, sliding down the left side of the circle, screaming epithets at communism as it disappears around the curve, unaware that its current course leads to a head-on encounter with communism going the other way at the bottom. Thereafter, both movements unite, causing their citizens to live miserably ever after. Few apprehend the inherent evil and diminishing rights in the emerging political structures or understand why they are inimical to the free society they are happily leaving behind. Since we're heading towards a system of global pantheistic neo-communism, it might be advisable to examine where we are in America today! The bottom line here is that B. Hussein Obama, a lifelong communist, is taking us down that slippery slope as quickly as possible! Therefore, bend over America because tyrannical communism is coming rapidly to our once great nation! Accordingly, prepare immediately as horrible trouble is dead ahead!
