Having a "working retirement" is one of the fastest-growing trends in America today. In studies conducted by AARP, Merrill Lynch, and MetLife, over 60 percent of individuals said that they plan to work in some way during their retirement years. You may be part of that majority- but the last thing you want to do is the same work you've been doing all your life. In a word, you're looking to REWIRE - to channel your energy and experience into work situations that are both financially and personally rewarding - whether it's a part-time job, volunteer work, or even a second career. The problem is that you're not sure where to start looking. Don't retire, rewire! second Edition helps you identify your drivers, or motivators, and then guides you through the process of using your interests to discover work with the flexibility, challenges, and rewards you want. With plenty of practical how-to-content, this book also offers stories and lessons from over 300 pre- and post retirees.
