The Ruth-like Church: Discovering The Role of Christians in Israel's Redemption within The Book of Ruth Matthew T. Wilson

This book was originally published as The Ruth-less Church. This edition contains some updates.

Author, ministry leader and forensic scientist Matthew Wilson takes us on a journey of new explorations within an old story as he performs what is effectively a forensic analysis of the Book of Ruth, one of the most beloved dramas of the Bible. Be prepared for a few surprises! Through a careful and detailed examination of the evidence, The Ruth-like Church reveals discoveries that will shock and amaze you and forever change your view of the Book of Ruth. Not only does the Book of Ruth contain a prophetic picture of God's ultimate sacrifice of the Messiah to redeem mankind, it also contains these amazing prophetic details:

- God's plan for the mutual dependence of Jewish and Gentile believers
- The history of the Jewish people from King Solomon to today
- The dual nature of Messiah as the Son of God and the Son of Man
- The return of the Lord, the resurrection and what will trigger it
- The literal fulfillment of the Genesis 12:3 blessing and curse
- The complete picture of Romans Chapter 11
- The Gospel of the sacrificed Messiah as seen in John 3:16

Most important for the Church today, The Ruth-like Church unveils God's ordained role for Christians in the redemption and restoration of Israel and the world. It is a plan that has been hidden in plain sight for three thousand years but is now unfolding across the globe. The Ruth-like Church reveals God's blueprint for this plan and the responsibility which God has placed on Christians to fulfill.

History will forever be changed when the Ruth-less Church becomes the Ruth-like Church!

The Ruth-like Church will transform you from spectator to partaker in God's plan for the restoration of all things!

What makes The Ruth-like Church different?

- The Ruth-like Church examines the Book of Ruth from a new perspective based upon more than 20 years of experience in forensic science and studying the Scriptures from a Hebraic perspective.
- All the character typologies in the story of Ruth become easily recognized and their importance understood.
- The presence of the faithful Jewish believer (Messianic Jew) in the story is revealed.
- The analysis stands in perfect harmony with the rest of Scripture including Paul's doctrinal statements in Romans 11 and Ephesians 2.

What makes The Ruth-like Church important?

- It unveils a magnificent picture of God's total plan of salvation for both Jews and Gentiles and how God would sacrifice His one and only Son in order to redeem Israel and provide salvation and an inheritance for the Gentiles.
- It reveals God's blueprint to reconcile Jewish and Gentile believers in one new man.
- It reveals God's prophetic plan for the future return of the Lord and what will trigger it.
- It provides a thorough and sound theological explanation as to why Christians should not just bless Israel in the Genesis 12:3 sense, but even more so why Christians should be actively involved interceding and sacrificing for Israel's redemption.

- It reveals the details of God's plan to use Christians to intercede and seek mercy for the unredeemed Jewish people, and thus fulfill His plan of full reciprocity and destroying all possibility of pride and boasting.

What will the reader take away from The Ruth-like Church?

- Jewish and Gentile believers will learn of their need for one another and their inextricable link in God's plan of restoration and redemption.
- What the 'fullness of the Gentiles' means.
- Gentile Christian readers will learn what their specific role is in God's End Times plan and how their own eternal inheritance and destiny is linked to the fulfillment of that role.
- The true character and mark of both the Ruth-less Church and the Ruth-like Church.
- A number of practical and easy steps for executing God's plan today.
