Excerpt from The Alpha, or First Principle of the Human Mind; As Revealed to Ramus Randolph in a Reverie, and Verified to His Satisfaction in a Dream: Being a Philosophical Inquiry Into the Constitution of Human Happiness and the Nature of Truth

Sir,

Mathematical Science has its basis in an intelligible starting-point of Truth. Mechanical Science has a starting-point of Truth. All the Physical Sciences have a starting-point of Truth. These starting-points are so many Principles which govern every subsequent fact in these respective Inquiries; by the aid of which all problems are solved; and through which every conclusion, logically arrived at, is known to be true. In like manner Mental Science has a starting-point of Truth, by the aid of which all questions of Right and Wrong in Religion, Philosophy, Ethics, Politics, and Social Arrangements are (or may be) infallibly determined.

The Truth, or Principle, which forms the starting-point in Mental Science is not the starting-point of Mathematics, or of Mechanics, or of any of the Physical Sciences; each of these truths being distinct from all the others.

To discover, determine, and fix, the Truth which forms the basis of Mental Science is the aim and object of the following pages.
