Consumed: He wants control and she wants a life. Can Liam and Norah reunite and make their relationship work if they both want to be in charge? When Liam's jealous friend makes a play for Norah, the unthinkable happens. How can he save his relationship and still have Norah's respect? Betrayed: I married the man that bought me at a slave auction. I have changed a lot since that night at the auction, but I still remember it very clearly. I remember being kidnapped and tortured. I remember being drugged and warned about the things in my future. I remember being scared. The fear is what I remember the most. I was afraid for my life and well-being all the time. I was afraid of what I would be forced to do to survive when I was sold. But most of all I was afraid of my feelings when I started to fall for my captor. Liam and I started out on rocky terms but had landed on our feet. No one would believe our history if we told them, but we didn't dare tell anyone. We wanted to move passed it and move forward with our lives. But it is hard to move forward when the past keeps coming back to haunt you.
