Catalogue (Classic Reprint) Nevins Memorial Library

The Nevins Memorial was founded in memory of the late David Nevins, who was born in Salem, S.H., Dec. 12, 1809, brought to Methuen by his parents at an early age, and passed here the years of his childhood. In his later years he assumed the duties of a citizen, and here at the family homestead he was seized with the illness which, on the 19th of March, 1881, unexpectedly closed his active and useful career. Desiring to promote the intellectual and moral well-being of the community whose material interests had been so greatly advanced by his business sagacity and energy, it was his expressed intention to found, during his lifetime, an institution similar in scope to that of this Memorial. His sudden decease prevented his execution of this design, but the purpose he had declared was at once taken up by his widow and sons, and the Nevins Memorial Building was erected upon the site chosen and purchased for that use some years before his death. The building was planned, and its construction supervised, by Mr. Samuel J. F. Thayer, architect, of Boston; ground for its erection being broken March 27, 1885, and the completed structure first opened to the public June 11, 1884. contains a public hall, ample in size and beautiful in decoration, a library, waiting and reading rooms well adapted to their respective uses, and suitable rooms for the trustees and librarian. The government of the Memorial is vested in a board of seven trustees, five of whom, Mrs. Eliza S. Nevins and Messrs. David Nevins, Henry C. Nevins, Jacob Emerson, and John H. Morse, were incorporated by the Massachusetts legislature of 1885 permanent members. The two additional members are chosen by the town of Methuen for the term of two years, Dr. George E. Woodbury and Mr. James Ingalls being the present elective members. When experience shall have shown what amount is needed for the proper maintenance (Typographical errors above are due to OCR software and don't occur in the book.)
