A Threesome in London...

Excerpt:

Terry shivered as a breeze blew against her bare lower legs beneath her skirt, and reached forward to touch the railing. Unlike any other she had seen since entering this backstreet maze, the window below had no curtain, blind or shutter covering it, and by bending her knees slightly she could see right in to the room beyond. The walls were painted the same deep red as the house's front door, and the carpet was thick and of what Terry took to be an expensive and luxurious Persian or Indian design. There was a roll-top writing desk against the far wall, and an overstuffed brown leather armchair on the left by the door. Small dark engravings hung on the walls, which were also adorned by brass lamps of the kind that used to be powered by gas or paraffin but which were presumably now run on electricity. Although the room and its furnishings were lavish and beautifully assembled, Terry barely noticed them. In fact, the only piece of furniture she registered at all was the red leather chaise longue across which a young blonde girl was stretched, naked except for a blindfold.

Her wrists were tied together with what looked like a curtain-rope and lashed to a post, and her legs, though unfettered, were spread wide apart, revealing a bush of dark pubic hair and a flash of moist pink flesh. Between her legs, facing away from the window, knelt a muscular man with short dark hair, also naked, who was gently licking her ...
