When a young witch can't control her own power, someone will control her

Alaysha is a witch with the power to drain living things of their water; the trouble is, that power is so strong she can't control it. Feared and unwelcome, she lives as a jaded outcast on the fringes of her megalomaniac father's city while he uses her as his weapon of war.

A charismatic youth manages to escape her deadly power, leaving her to question her heritage. What she discovers about herself will put her on a dangerous journey of self discovery that will change the world she lives in and lead her to a man who will ultimately make that life worth living.

If you're a new adult reader or a lover of women's fiction where sword and sorcery blends with just the right amount of romance and action and adventure, this series offers you a delightful few hours' enjoyment.
