God has a plan for each and every one of us, and in the inspirational memoir, What a Difference a Day Makes, Dale Collins reveals how God's call led him to four colleges and to Wings of Healing, a ministry that took him around the world and brought him together with spiritual leaders. Written in warm, conversational prose, What a Difference a Day Makes reveals how the Bible is a living book and can offer stepping stones to a better life, as well as loving support to any Christian believer. As Collins relates the story of God's divine purpose, he chronicles the moments that impacted his life on his God-ordained pathway. From a rainy afternoon that opens up an opportunity for Collins to earn a college degree, to his chance encounter with his future wife, Collins witnesses God's hand day after day. He owns up to his mistakes, including the negative thoughts that nearly caused his death or his rash resignation from the ministry (never submitted), and becomes a stronger person because of it. Collins' book is filled with loving instruction and insight for believers. Let God reveal your destiny. Learn to pray for what you want and prepare yourself for whatever may come. Always maintain your spiritual relationship with the Lord in order to be ready for each and every assignment that He may give you. Each chapter includes a helpful spiritual life principle, in the belief that whatever we ask for in faith, God will grant. Says Karen O'Connor, the author of Help, Lord! I'm Having a Senior Moment!, "What a powerful story, and so well written. You have inspired me and I will not forget the impact this book has made on my life."
