Witches' Night Out (Witches Chillers) Silver RavenWolf

Get lost in this riveting novel as five teen witches join together in the hunt to find a murderer when no one else will even believe that a killing took place, in the thrilling pages of Witches' Night Out by Silver RavenWolf.

This is a novel meant just for teens like you. It deals with your emotions and your feelings, while throwing in enough real magic and edge-of-your-seat scares to keep you turning the pages.

The main character is Bethany Salem. She's pretty much like every other sixteen-year-old girl except for one thing: she's a Witch. Five years ago her mother died, leaving her in the care of her father, a New York City cop, who deposited her in the suburbs with a housekeeper who practices Santeria.

Together with her friends, she has formed the Witches' Night Out Coven. One of their first tasks is to do a ritual for their friend, Joe, who died in a car accident. To their surprise, they discover that it was not an accident.

- Can they discover who caused the fatal "accident?"
- Why was the crime committed?
- If they do find out who did it, can they get adults to believe them?
- Will they even get out of this alive?

Written by the author of numerous books on Witchcraft and Wicca, Witches' Night Out is filled with real magic and spiritual information, not the silly fictions found in some other books. In fact, at the end of this book, you'll discover a real spell for ending gossip.

Notice to parents: The author has teenaged children of her own and included things she hoped would inspire her own kids, including a focus on the use of inner strength, courage, and willpower to overcome seemingly insurmountable obstacles.

For exciting reading that teaches positive self-image and magic thrown in with a background of excitement, get Witches' Night Out.
