Translated from the critical edition by John Clarke, OCD. Includes general and biblical index, with 12 photos.

Those who attended St. Thérèse of Lisieux during her last illness were living in the company of one of God's greatest saints, one prepared for our times. Fortunately for us they did not simply listen to her conversations, but wrote down what they remembered. This volume brings together their reports of Thérèse's final words during her last months, including some of her most famous sayings, such as I will spend my heaven doing good on earth.
