Mythic Discourse: Essays on Mythology, Culture, and Soul John Lundwall PhD

This Journal is a collection of essays dealing with various topics in myth, religion, and folklore. Multiple methodological views are employed, including archetypal and depth psychology, gender and environmental issues, historical and multi-cultural approaches. Topics in this issue range from native mythological systems, ritual expressions dealing with libations, textiles, and zombification, the creative imagination, Carl Jung's alleged anti-semitism, and much more.
