The Cambridge Companion to the String Quartet (Cambridge Companions to Music)

The Cambridge Companion to the String Quartet (Cambridge Companions to Music)

This survey of the string quartet by ten chamber music specialists focuses on four main areas: social and musical background to the genre's development; celebrated ensembles and their significance; and string quartet playing. It reviews aspects of contemporary and historical practice, including "mixed ensembles." Informative appendixes and a full chronology of the mainstream repertory complete this compact guide.
