At Risk Students: Reaching and Teaching Them Jonas Cox, Richard Sagor

This book is organized around CBUPO, the basic psychological needs of all students: competence, belonging, usefulness, potency, and optimism. When teachers and schools focus on meeting these needs, the rate of at-riskness is drastically reduced. This book presents practical strategies and tips to help teachers and administrators help all students become successful learners. The revised edition offers new material on using classroom assessment, complying with standards and high stakes testing, an updated approach to evaluating At-Risk Prevention programs, and alternative strategies for meeting the motivational needs of at-risk youth, from developmental constructivism to mastery learning.

Heidi Crenshaw:

As a university student exactly feel bored in order to reading. If their teacher inquired them to go to the library or even make summary for some book, they are complained. Just very little students that has reading's heart or real their passion. They just do what the instructor want, like asked to go to the library. They go to right now there but nothing reading seriously. Any students feel that reading through is not important, boring along with can't see colorful images on there. Yeah, it is to be complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this era, many ways to get whatever we would like. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this At Risk Students: Reaching and Teaching Them can make you truly feel more interested to read.
