Flying high in a Polka Dot Dress is a collection of stories highlighting life lessons taught by a father to his children. A man who suffered and struggled growing up was determined that his children would have much better lives than he dared to dream for himself. He always sensed he was on this planet for a short time and he determined to make his time count by empowering his children and any one he came across through education, self belief, encouragement and challenging conversations that were meant to stretch the listeners. The lessons have inspired his children to make audacious choices resulting in great successes. Readers will laugh, be challenged and most importantly will be inspired to dream and pursue their dreams with dogged determination that will result in maximised potentials.
